

NOTICE TO USERS

This report is intended to document the methodologies, findings, and conclusions of an engineering analysis completed for the Municipality of Anchorage Project Management and Engineering (PM&E). Changes frequently occur during the evolution of the design process. Persons who may rely on the information contained in this document should consult with PM&E or Lounsbury and Associates for the most current design decisions.